

55 BNP men detained in Banani Club raid

March 20, 2023

Online Desk: Detective Branch (DB) police and Banani police jointly raided Banani Club at an early hours and detained 55 leaders and activists of opposition BNP while they were holding a meeting there. BNP men from different districts were present at the meeting.

According to Banani Police Station OC Mostafizur Rahman, getting an information, police raided the club at 1am on Monday while 55 BNP men from different districts of the country were holding a clandestine meeting there.

They were detained on charge of holding an anti-government meeting, The OC added. The detained BNP men were, later, taken to DB office. Process to file a case is underway, OC Mostafizur Rahman said.