

On Independence Day, a discussion meeting and Iftar was held in honor of political and cultural personalities at Magura

March 28, 2023

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk : On March 26, a discussion meeting and Iftar was held with the participation of political and cultural personalities on the occasion of the Great Independence Day organized by Magura daily.com, Weekly Chowrangi and Sursaptak Magura at Sursaptak Magura office in the college neighborhood of Magura. Zahidul Alam, publisher of Magura Pratidin.com and weekly Chowrangi and founder of Sursaptak Magura, was present as the chief guest on the occasion. One of the poets of Magura, Mia Wahid Kamal Bablu, presided over the event. Abu Basar Akhand, Executive Editor of Magura Pratidin.com and Weekly Chowrangi gave the welcome address at the event moderated and conducted by Magura Pratidin.com and Weekly Chowrangi Editor Zahid Rahman. General Secretary Magura District Jasdhar Sameer Chakraborty, District CPB General Secretary ATM Anisur Rahman, JP Vice Chairman M Fateh Ali Tipu, cultural personality Bikash Majumder, Magura Press Club General Secretary Journalist Shamim Khan, Saptak President Kabi Shikder also gave speeches in the pre-iftar discussion meeting. Waliuzzaman, journalist Shafiqul Islam, journalist Rupak Aich and others. Zahidul Alam, the publisher of Magura Pratidin.com and Weekly Chowrangi and founder of Sursaptak Magura said, We had many aspirations for freedom. One of these is communal harmony and non-communal Bangladesh. Journalists and cultural workers of the country have always played a major role in achieving this goal. Even after 50 years of our independence, that goal has not been achieved. For this reason we all have to unite and advance our social and cultural struggle. Local Lalon Sangeet Academy, Udichi, Saregama Sangeet Academy, Rabindra Sangeet Sammilan Parishad, Lok Sanstik Kendra, Magura Sahithik Parishad, Kanthavithi and other social and cultural organizations of Magura participated in the event.