

Trial-basis train movement on Padma Bridge begins

April 4, 2023

Online Desk: A special train with seven compartments has left Bhanga railway station in Faridpur on Tuesday.

The train left the station around 1:21pm for Mawa. Railway Minister Nurul Islam Sujan inaugurated the programme.

The train will reach Mawa, on the eastern end of the Padma Bridge, after crossing a 42-km track. Through this, the train journey started for the first time on the ground of Madaripur, Shariatpur and Munshiganj.
