

Gold prices drop by Tk 1,983 per bhuri

April 11, 2023

Online Desk: Bangladesh Jewelers Association (BAJUS) has decided to reduce the gold price by Tk 1,983 per bhuri. With the new rate effective from Tuesday, price of 22-carat gold was reduced from Tk 99,144 to Tk 97,161 per bhuri, according to a press release issued by BAJUS.

BAJUS said the rate was re-fixed as the prices of pure gold declined in the domestic market. According to the newly fixed prices, each bhuri of 21 carat gold (11.66 grams) has been re-fixed at Tk 97,161, while 18-carat at Tk 79,490 and traditional gold price at Tk 66,252.

Meanwhile, the prices of silver have remained unchanged. The price of 22-carat of silver is Tk 1,715 per bhuri, while 21-carat is Tk 1,633, 18-carat is Tk 1,400 and traditional method of silver is Tk 1,050.

Earlier, the previous price of per bhuri gold in the local market was Tk 99,144.
