

New Super Market fire: 17 among 10 fire men hospitalised

April 15, 2023

Online Desk: Seventeen people including 10 firefighters fell sick due to huge black smoke while trying to douse the New Super Market fire. All of them are giving treatment at emergency department of Dhaka Medical College Hospital.

Of the injured, one is volunteer, one is shop owner and five are employees. Though it has passed five hours, the fire is still burning.

Fire Service and Civil Defence's director general Brig Gen Md Main Uddin said they managed to take the blaze under their control but it would take some more time to douse fully.
