

SSC to begin on Sunday, 20,72,163 expected to sit for

April 29, 2023

Online Desk: Secondary School Certificate (SSC) and equivalent examinations will begin across the country on Sunday (April 30) where 20,72,163 candidates are expected to take part. Equipment for the examinations has already been reached at all centres. The theoretical portion of the SSC exam will begin on 30 April and end on 23 May.

The examinations are going to begin two months after the scheduled time. According to the government's academic calendar, SSC exams are held from February 1 and HSC from April 1 every year.

The examinations will be held at 10am everyday. The candidates will have to be reached at their respective centres 30 minutes before the exam. The results will be published within 60 days from the end of the examination.
