

Time plea accepted, Samrat's bail extended till June 1

May 15, 2023

Online Desk: A court in Dhaka on Monday fixed June 1 for hearing on framing charges against expelled Jubo League leader Ismail Hossain Chowdhury Samrat in a graft case.

Dhaka Special Judge's Court-6 judge Manzurul Imam passed the order accepting the time extension plea by Samrat's attorney in his client's present at the court, as today was fixed for the hearing. The court also accepted Samrat's bail plea till the next hearing.

The Rapid Action Battalion (RAB) arrested Samrat along with his associate and also former Jubo League leader Enamul Haque alias Arman from a village in Cumilla's Chauddagam upazila on October 6, 2019.

On November 12 in the same year, ACC deputy director Md Jahangir Alam filed a case against him for amassing wealth worth of around Tk 3 crore beyond his known income sources.

The anti-corruption watchdog submitted a chargesheet against him on November 26, 2020, accusing him for rallying wealth worth of over Taka 222.88 crore beyond his known income sources.
