

44th BCS written tests of Arabic, Islamic studies on 11 January

December 27, 2022

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: The written tests of Arabic and Islamic studies modules for the 44th Bangladesh Civil Service (BCS) examinations will be held on 11 January, 2023, reports UNB. Bangladesh Public Service Commission (PSC) issued a press release on this regard on Monday. The written tests for Arabic (131) and Islamic Studies (201) of all the candidates will be held from 10.00am to 2.00pm on the day at Dhaka center of BPSC 71 Auditorium in the capital's Agargaon area, the notice stated. Exams of these two subjects will not be taken at the regional office of BPSC.

The results of 44th Bangladesh Civil Service (BCS) preliminary test (MCQ type) were published on June 22 this year. Altogether 15,708 candidates qualified for participating in the written examination. The preliminary test for the 44th BCS was held on 27 May this year.