

Primary teachers recruitment result today, 5000 more posts to be added

December 14, 2022

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: The final result of recruiting assistant teachers at the primary school will be published today, Wednesday, said an official of the primary and mass education ministry. The ministry official further said that a decision to increase around 5,000 more posts has also been taken. The public relations officer of the ministry, Mahbubur Rahman, told Prothom Alo on Wednesday morning that “All preparation has been taken to publish the result. The result will be published at 2:00 pm at the primary education directorate website. “Apart from this, the passed candidates will be notified about their results through SMS,” he added.
