

You are an animal, learn to be a decent human first: Pori Moni to Razz

June 4, 2023

Online Desk: Pori Moni has finally put up a status where she publicly blamed Sariful Razz. She called out Razz for his illicit affairs and his alcoholic problems.

“Sariful Razz, you are the worst person I have ever seen. Don’t you dare utter my Rajya’s name from your filthy mouth. Last night, when you were completely drunk and you wanted to see our child I went to you instantly and took Rajya with me. You are an animal who needs to learn how to act like a human. Just you wait and watch what I do to you and your pretty little girlfriends. The world has a lot to see right now. This is a warning to all you haters. Come up and I will face you directly,” read her post.

The actress shared a video link of Shahriar Nazim Joy who talked with Sariful Razz over the phone. The video conversation showcased that Razz appreciated Shahriar Nazim Joy’s point of view that Pori Moni is responsible for this.

Recently, the actor shared his thoughts about the Razz, Pori Moni, Sunerah and Tanjin Tisha issue, where he blamed Pori Moni for it. He boycotted Pori Moni and stated that if his allegations are wrong, he will say sorry to Pori Moni. After that post, Razz allegedly called Joy over the phone as that video got viral. He thought Razz would call him out for pinning charges against Pori Moni. Shahriar Nazim Joy has said that Razz liked the video and shared his thoughts with him. Joy shared parts of the conversation from the page.

“I don’t think considering issues before marriage is a big thing. I never talk about or disrespect someone’s past. She stays with ‘good people’ who try to influence her. In order to claim as her husband, I might have to stop acting. You told me that I need to claim my position but in order to do so, I might create a massacre. I don’t think it’s advisable to create such a disaster right now,” said Sariful Razz.

The actor also shared that journalists requested him to sort problems with his wife. “We are talking normally, everything is fine and the next day, she posts our personal stuff on Facebook. Sometimes I am really puzzled about what is going on,” revealed the actor.

When Joy warned him about taking personal videos on his phone, Razz replied, “I have struggled a lot in my career. Just when I was about to enjoy the good times, I am being harassed a lot. I had to learn about our family affairs through the newspaper,” stated the actor. Razz also revealed that he talked with Tanjin Tisha and Sunerah and that he considers them as his best friends.

“Recently I had a talk with Sunerah during my shoot. They are a little bit upset, and I feel the same way as well. They called me to ask whether I am ok or not. We had a wonderful friendship which started before marriage. Why is this such a big issue now? I don’t get why she feels insecure about me. She has been working in the industry for such a long time. She knows her husband. What is the reason behind her insecurity. Do I have to leave acting or do I have to dress up like a girl so that I don’t have to romance ladies on-screen. I am not in contact with her for about 12 days.”
