

Doctor arrested over medical admission question leakage in Khulna

August 19, 2023

Online Desk: The Criminal Investigation Department (CID) of Bangladesh Police have arrested a doctor, in connection with his suspected involvement in the medical college admission question leak, from Khulna district on Friday.

The arrested is Dr Yunus Khan Tarim, owner of Three Doctors Coaching Centre in Khulna. Khulna Sadar Police Station officer-in-charge Hasan Al Mamun said a team of CID arrested Dr Tarim and took him to Dhaka for further interrogation in the afternoon.

According to CID, Dr Tarim has been involved in leaking medical college admission test questions for 16 years. He has earned substantial wealth from selling question papers to students of the coaching centre, at Tk 35-40 lakh each, they said.

So far, CID have arrested 12 members of a “question paper leaking racket”. Among the arrestees are seven physicians including Dr Tarim.
