2 oil tanker trucks catch fire at Dhaka airport’s 3rd terminal

December 14, 2022

The Daily Morning Voice Online Desk: Two oil tanker trucks caught fire at the third terminal of Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport in the capital on Wednesday morning. Shahjahan Shikdar, deputy assistant director of Fire Service and Civil Defense headquarters’ media cell, said the two oil tanker trucks caught fire at 10:12 am. On information, four firefighting units rushed to the spot and brought the fire under control around 11:30am. However, what caused the fire could not be known immediately.